

Contents

About the authors xi

Acknowledgements xiii

Welcome from the authors 1

PART ONE – A fictional world. Rewriting the allegory 9

1 Weathering extremities 11

2 From poor to paws 14

3 From straw for brains to wise owls 17

4 Heartless: If only AI had EI 23

5 Making the lion's share enough to go around 27

6 Locked in the past 34

7 Technological wizardry or trickery? 38

8	The wonderful Emerald City	45
9	The magical festival of urban food	52
10	The nightmare of Oz the Terrible	57
11	Meeting the wonderful Wizard of Oz	60
12	Back home	74
13	Chasing rainbows	78
14	Official correspondence of The Wizard's Office, Oz	80

PART TWO – A real-world framework.
An imaginary for the 21st century.
Updated version based on the Wizard's working guide. Drafted back in Exeter by (Dorie), Ken, & Alex 83

15	An introduction to this 'Imaginary for today's real world' from Ken & Alex	85
16	An overview: The Wonderful Circles of Oz framework and sigil for resetting the rules of the game	87
17	Today's economic narrative	95
18	Worldview pre-science	99
19	Shifting the metaphor: From machine to metabolism	105

20	The productive cycle: Four rules for materials to flow not fail our economy	114
21	Uncovering the big players: Active but hidden in plain sight	120
22	The gatekept cycle: Four rules for money to circulate not clot our economy	133
23	The liberation and terrors of a digital world	150
24	A flourishing democracy – the path to a flourishing economy	165

PART THREE – A ‘golden’ path between the fiction, the framework, and real-world applications 173

25	Story as a strategy for sharing real world complex ideas	175
26	Weathering extremities – real world themes	177
27	From poor to paws – real world themes	180
28	From straw for brains to wise owls – real world themes	182
29	Heartless: If only AI had EI – real world themes	185
30	Making the lion’s share enough to go around – real-world themes	188

31	Locked in the past – real world themes	192
32	Technological wizardry or trickery – real world themes	194
33	The wonderful Emerald City – real world themes	196
34	The magical festival of urban food – real world themes	199
35	The nightmare of Oz the Terrible – real world themes	202
36	Meeting the wonderful Wizard of Oz – real world themes	205
37	Back home and Chasing rainbows – real world themes	210
	Afterword from the authors	211