

CONTENTS

Foreword	ix
Abbreviations	xii
Chapter 1
INTRODUCTION TO A TOUGH DILEMMA	1
Chapter 2
EXPECTATIONS AND DISILLUSIONS BEYOND SYRIA	11
Chapter 3
CONTAINING THE HUMAN BEAST: FUNDAMENTALS OF INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW	23
The Government's Particular Responsibility	25
State-centred International Practice	26
Neutrality and Impartiality	27
Countries' Controversial Consent	30
Chapter 4
A MOVING TARGET: DYNAMICS OF INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW	33
Law or War?	33
An Octopus with Dwindling Force	35
Contested Notions of State Sovereignty	41
Chapter 5
THE TERRORISM TOOL: DE-HUMANIZING THE 'OTHER'	51
The Sin of Rage at Ground Zero	51
The Myth of the Unlawful Combatant	53
Poisonous Rhetoric	54
A Self-fulfilling Prophecy	55
Chapter 6
DE-NEUTRALIZING AID: ALL ROADS LEAD TO DAMASCUS	57
The Government's Grip on Humanitarian Work	57
The Plight of the Syrian Arab Red Crescent in a Totalitarian System	68
Western Diplomats' Dilemma	72
Damascus or Cross Border: The Hard Choice	75
Cross-border Controversies in the Security Council	82

Chapter 7
IN THE PILLORY: THE UN'S SYRIA DILEMMA	89
Complicity with Evil?	90
Contracting Dangerous Bedfellows	94
Between All Fronts	99
Chapter 8
CREDIBILITY CRISIS	103
The UN Reacts	103
Donors React	106
Chapter 9
DIVERSIFYING AID: ROADS TO CIRCUMVENT DAMASCUS	111
'Humanitarian Plus'	111
A Double-edged Sword	113
The Reconstruction Gamble	116
Chapter 10
IRRECONCILABLE POSITIONS: ROADS TO NOWHERE	121
A Fig Leaf for Political Failure	122
Double Deficiency	123
Russia's Soft Power Failure	125
Contempt for Multilateralism	126
Chapter 11
ARGUMENTS FOR CHANGE: HOW TO AVOID THE NEUTRALITY TRAP	129
Chapter 12
CONCLUSION	137
Notes	151
Bibliography	165
Index	177

Cover Image: Residents of the Damascus neighbourhood of Yarmouk desperately wait to receive food aid in January 2014. At this time, an estimated 18,000 people were besieged inside this area by government forces and lacked medical supplies and food.