
Contents

1 Do Students Learn Through Online Discussion?	1
Introduction	1
Online Discussion	3
Historical and Theoretical Groundings of Online Discussion	4
A Bit of History	4
When Online Discussion Meets Vygotsky	8
Social Interaction	8
Mediation of Tools	10
The More Knowledgeable Other	11
Student Learning Through Online Discussions—Case Analysis	11
Case Analysis—Cognitive Engagement in Online Discussion	13
Beyond Text-Based Online Discussion	16
Artificial Intelligence and Online Discussion	17
Summary	19
References	19
2 Design to Engage Students	21
Introduction	21
Design to Engage Students	22
Discussion Prompts—Planting a Good Seed	22
Discussion for Real Purpose	23
Discussion through Multiple Voices	25
Discussion amongst Conflicts	26
Diverse Designs—Attending to Variation	28
Reading Materials	29
Quote	30
Scenario/Case Study	30
Most Recent News	31
Research	32
Debate	33
Role Playing	34

Subject Expert	35
Reflection	35
Student Experiences—Drawing on Inexhaustible Resources	37
Emotional Connection	38
Authenticity	39
Recognized Venue	40
Requiring a Tangible Product—Harvesting Season	42
Summary	46
References	47
3 Lay Down Groundwork: Forming, Accessing, and Inducting	49
Introduction	49
Forming Groups	50
Building Balanced Groups: Assessing Student Strengths and Weaknesses	50
Polling Students	50
Observations	51
Small Assignments	51
Group Size	52
Accessing the Virtual Learning Community	54
Design of the Online Discourse Space	55
Group Space	55
Class Space	55
Teacher Space	56
Personal Space	56
Inducting	57
Icebreakers to Reinforce the Overall Goal of the Course	60
Summary	61
References	62
4 Commonality	63
Introduction	63
Commonality in Online Discourse Communities	64
Hard Lessons	65
A Success Story—a Bond that United Students	67
Attend to Commonality	68
Make It Current	68
Make It Personal	70
Make It Big	72
Make It Real/Impactful	73
Summary	75
References	75

5 Interdependence	77
Introduction	77
Interdependence Defined	78
A Report—Collaboration Falls Apart	79
Building Interdependence	81
Designing Challenging Tasks	81
Mutual Needs and Complementary Motives	83
Role Interdependence	85
Summary	92
References	93
6 Rules	95
Introduction	95
Importance of Rules in Learning Communities	96
Online Discussion Environment	98
Designing Rules to Regulate Online Discussion	100
Participation	101
Interaction	104
Cognitive Construction—Quality of Student Postings	109
Summary	113
References	114
7 Instructor as Facilitator	117
Introduction	117
Facilitating Online Discussion: The More, the Better?	118
What Does the Research Say?	119
Student Perceptions on Teacher Presence	120
Graduate Student Perceptions	120
Undergraduate Student Perceptions	122
Teacher-Student Roles Redefined	125
When to Step In	126
Teacher Presence Revisited	129
Making it Explicit	130
Summarizing the Discussion	130
Establishing a Teacher Space—Online Discussion Fireside	132
E-mail Communication Exchanges	133
Summary	134
References	134
8 Questioning to Facilitate	137
Introduction	137
Questioning as a Way of Teaching	138
Benefits of Questioning for Student Learning	139
Questioning in Online Discussion	140
Questioning to Transform Surface Learning to Deep Learning in Online Discussion	141

Essential Purposes of Questioning in Facilitating Online Discussion ...	146
Questioning to Make Connections	146
Questioning to Facilitate Critical Inquiry	149
Questioning to Open Student Minds to Multiple Perspectives	152
Questioning to Promote Actionable Outcomes	154
Considerations in Designing and Implementing Facilitating
Questions	157
A Toolbox of Questions	159
Summary	160
References	161
9 Assessing Online Discussion: A Holistic Approach	163
Introduction	163
Assessment of Learning	164
Assessment for Learning	170
Using Rubrics in Assessment for Learning	171
Rubric Design	172
Promoting the Students' Role in Assessment for Learning	179
Points for Consideration	180
Assessment as Learning	181
A Holistic Approach to Assess Online Discussions	187
Summary	188
References	189
Index	191