

Contents

1	Introduction	1
1.1	Introduction	2
1.2	How This Book Came About	3
1.3	Structure of the Book	6
	References	8
2	Duoethnography to Explore the Work and Lives of Teacher Educators	9
2.1	Introduction	9
2.2	Wandering Towards Duoethnography	10
2.3	Understanding Autoethnography	19
2.4	Embracing Duoethnography	20
2.5	Ethics and Duoethnography	21
2.6	Creating This Duoethnography	24
2.6.1	The River Journey Metaphor	24
	References	26
3	Our Educational Journeys	29
3.1	Introduction	29
3.2	Early Family Influences	30
3.3	Kindergarten and Nursery	34
3.4	Primary School	35
3.5	High School	37
3.6	University/Polytechnic	41
3.7	Teaching	43
3.8	Transitioning into Academia and Becoming a Teacher Educator	47
3.9	Conclusion	48
	References	50

4	Becoming a Teacher Educator	51
4.1	Introduction	52
4.2	Transitioning from Teacher to Teacher Educator	53
	References	66
5	Policy and Educational Contexts of Teacher Education	69
5.1	Introduction	70
5.2	Teacher Education Policy Landscape in Australia and England	70
5.3	Professional Standards for Teachers	76
5.4	Performance Standards for Academics	79
5.5	Frameworks for Effective Teacher Education	85
	References	89
6	Collaboration and the Work of Teacher Educators	93
6.1	Introduction	95
6.2	Collaboration in the Journey of Becoming a Teacher Educator	95
6.3	Collaboration Through S-STEP Community and Becoming Teacher Educators	98
6.4	Collaboration Beyond the Self-Study Community	104
	References	109
7	Working with the Teaching Profession	113
7.1	Introduction	114
7.2	Teachers and Teacher Educators Working Together	114
7.3	Working Together to Provide Professional Experience	115
7.4	Learning from Working with the Teaching Profession	123
	References	126
8	Developing Pedagogies of Teacher Education	129
8.1	Introduction	130
8.2	What Is Meant by ‘Pedagogies of Teacher Education’?	130
8.3	Context Matters: Journeys of Evolving Pedagogies in Diverse Settings	138
8.4	Exploring Our Pedagogies of Teacher Education Through Autobiographical Writing and Self-Study	142
8.5	The Influence of Life Experiences on Pedagogy as Teacher Educators	146
	References	150

9	Constructing an Identity as a Teacher Educator	153
9.1	Introduction	154
9.2	Voice, Self and Identity	154
9.3	The Meaning of Identity and Constructing a Professional Identity as a Teacher Educator	155
9.4	The Role of Early Life Experiences in Identity Construction	156
	References	167
10	What Does 'Becoming a Teacher Educator' Mean?	169
10.1	Introduction	169
10.2	What Does It Mean to Have a Career as a Teacher Educator?	175
10.3	What Have We Learned from Undertaking This Duoethnography?	178
10.4	Looking Back on the Writing Process as Research	182
	References	184